Re: United States v. Natalie Mayflower Sours Edwards, 19 Cr. 64 (GHW)

Dear Judge Woods:

We represent the defendant in the above-referenced case, which is currently scheduled for sentencing on July 8, 2020. On April 3, 2020, the Probation Department issued its draft report, with the final report due on May 1, 2020. We write now, without objection by the government or the Probation Department, to extend the due date for the final report to May 15, 2020, to allow the defense to adequately address its objections to the draft report.

Respectfully submitted,

Jacob Kaplan

Jacob Kaplan, Esq.

cc: Government Counsel (via ECF)
 U.S. Probation Officer Meaghan E. Biggs (via email)

Application granted. The due date for the final report is extended to May 15, 2020. Separately, the Coronavirus Aid, Recovery, and Economic Security Act (the "CARES Act") permits the Court to conduct certain criminal proceedings remotely with the defendant's consent. The Court requests that the defendant consider whether she is willing to consent to conduct the sentencing by remote means in accordance with the CARES Act. If so, she is directed to indicate that fact in her sentencing submission, and her counsel is directed to confer with the United States to complete a written consent document in the form that is currently being used to document such consents with such modifications as the parties may deem appropriate.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the motion pending at Dkt. No. 40.

SO ORDERED

April 29, 2020

 GREGORY H. WOODS
 United States District Judge
